

CNS Seminar Series - 2011/12

Date	Speaker	Affiliation	Seminar Title	Special Location
October 26th, 2011	Susan Boehnke	Centre for Neuroscience Studies, Queen's University	The role of the superior colliculus in the visual orienting reflex
November 30th, 2011	Sandra Black	Senior Scientist, Sunnybrook Research Institute Professor, Department of Medicine, Division of Neurology, University of Toronto	Neuroimaging of Dementia: "What's New, What's Cool, What's Ready for Prime Time
TO BE ANNOUNCED	Anthony Phillips	Scientific Director, CIHR Institute of Neurosciences, Mental Health and Addiction, Professor of Psychiatry and Senior Scientist, University of British Columbia	Long-Term Depression: A Portal On Synaptic Plasticity, Memory, and Addiction
January 11th, 2012	Beverly Orser	Professor, Anaesthesia, Institute of Medical Science, Department of Physiology, University of Toronto	Memory Deficits and Inflammation : The perfect storm.
February 8th, 2012	Ronald Weisman	Department of Psychology, Queen's University	The Perceptual Determinants of Communication	Botterell Hall, Room B143 at 4:00 pm
February 22nd, 2012	John Krakauer	Motor Performance Lab, The Neurological Institute of New York, Columbia University	Puzzling over motor learning
May 2nd, 2012	Pierre Drapeau	Director, Department of Pathology and Cell Biology, Universite de Montreal	TBA
June 5th, 2012	Philippe Lefevre	Universite catholique de Louvain	Eye movements in humans: a potential biomarker in incipient neurological disorders	Room B143 Botterell Hall at 11 am